His Attorney Prepares Petition to Governor Swanson.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., JAN. 5.

L. H. Machen, attorney for Howard Banks, the colored man who is sentenced to be hanged here on Friday next, is trying to secure the signatures of the jurymen who convicted Banks to a petition to the governor asking for a commutation of his sentence. Mr. Machen has secured nearly all of the signatures of the jurymen, and expects to have the list completed this evening. The impression is growing that Banks will escape the gallows, as it is now Springfield. Mass., his former home, will escape the gallows, as it is now tion of Judge Barley, will commute his Justice H. B. Caton this morning reu-dered his decision in the case of A. 2. Schriver, agent of the National Sick and Justice Caton dismissed the case on the ground that the company which Mr. Schriver represented held a license issued by the Rureau of Insurance of the Corporation Commission, which license was in lieu of all taxes or licenses either State, municipal, or county. Mr. Caten in rendering his decision in this case announced that the defendant company was doing business under the lodge plan, and he would, therefore, dismiss the charge against them of doing business without an license. Commonwealth's Attorney Brent noted an appeal to the corporation court. Justice Caton dismissed the case on the home.

LOVER SLAYS BOY WHO INTRUDES

MADISON, W. Va., Jan. 5.—Daniel Webster Boone, aged twenty-two, shot and instantly killed the five-year-old son of Mrs. Ida Meadows at the latter's home.

It is stated that the child went into a room where Boone and a girl were making love and that Boone, in a fit of anger, placed the pistol against the lad's breast and fired. The pistol was so close that the burning powder set fire to the boy's clothing.
